Friday

7 p.m., Good Boy, PG (Some mild crude humor) -- From the distant Sirius (also known as the Dog Star), an invasion of Earth has been planned for thousands of years, as canine spies are sent to gather information. The Sirius military sends their best dog, Canid 3942, to find out what's going on. After landing, he is befriended by a boy, Owen, who runs a neighborhood dog-walking service. With the "Great Dane" on her way to inspect the troops, Canid 3942 and Owen must snap the dogs back into shape or all the dogs on Earth will be recalled back to Sirius, and man will lose all of his best friends.

1 hr. 28 mins.

Saturday

7 p.m., Lost in Translation, R (Some sexual content) -- This is the story of two Americans, a washed-up television star in town for a whiskey commercial shoot, and the young wife of a photographer. They meet in Tokyo, Japan, and end up spending the weekend on a soul-searching mission.

1 hr. 45 mins.

Sunday

3 p.m., Beyond Borders, R (Language and war-related violence) -- A sheltered American socialite living in London meets a renegade doctor whose commitment to humanitarian efforts in war-torn nations moves her deeply. Influenced by him, she risks everything to embark on a journey that leads to the volatile far corners of the Earth.

2 hrs. 7 mins.
