

STAFF SGT. STEVEN CARDO

Public Affairs Specialist

Staff Sgt. Steven Cardo is a public affairs specialist for the F-16 Viper Demonstration Team.

As a public affairs specialist, he creates photo, video and written products, manages the team's social media accounts, and coordinates community outreach and media engagement opportunities for the team.

He represents Air Combat Command, the United States Air Force and the Department of Defense at more than 20 air shows annually. His role is to ensure the demonstration team communicates its mission to the millions of spectators and fans.

Staff Sgt. Cardo enlisted into the Air Force in September 2021. He is from Miami, Florida and enjoys fishing, camping and hiking.
