

SENIOR AIRMAN MEGHAN HUTTON

Public Affairs Specialist

Senior Airman Meghan Hutton is a public affairs specialist for the F-16 Viper Demonstration Team.

As a public affairs specialist, she creates photo, video and written products, manages the team's social media accounts, and coordinates community outreach and media engagement opportunities for the team.

She represents Air Combat Command, the United States Air Force and the Department of Defense at more than 20 air shows annually. Her role is to ensure the demonstration team communicates it's mission to the millions of spectators and fans.

Senior Airman Hutton enlisted into the Air Force in April 2021. She is from Leominster, England and enjoys trail running and reading.
