

MASTER SGT. DEANDRA BAKER

Superintendent

Master Sgt. DeAndra Baker is the F-16 Viper Demonstration Team superintendent.

As the superintendent she is responsible for leading the 8-member enlisted Viper Demonstration Team members and oversees all maintenance actions performed on the F-16. By doing so, she ensures the demonstration pilot is equipped with a safe, reliable and effective jet to execute maneuvers for millions of spectators.

She represents Air Combat Command, the United States Air Force and the Department of Defense at more than 20 air shows annually. She also serves as the narrator during the demonstration performance.

Master Sgt. DeAndra Baker enlisted into the Air Force in September 2008. She is from Duffield, Virginia and enjoys traveling and spending time at the lake and with her family.
