

Master Sergeant Brandon Baden Superintendent

Master Sergeant Brandon Baden is the F-16 Viper Demonstration Team superintendent. As the superintendent he is responsible for leading the 7-member enlisted Viper Demonstration Team members and oversees all maintenance actions performed on the F-16.

By doing so, he ensures the demonstration pilot is equipped with a safe, reliable and effective jet to execute maneuvers for millions of spectators. He represents Air Combat Command, the United States Air Force and the Department of Defense at more than 20 air shows annually. He also serves as the narrator during the demonstration performances.

Master Sergeant Baden enlisted into the Air Force in September, 2003. He is from Manassas, Virginia, and enjoys riding dirt bikes and working on classic Volkswagens.

Assignments

- 2004 - 2010: Aerospace Propulsion Technician
- 2010 - 2012: Quality Assurance Inspector
- 2012 - 2013: Jet Engine Test Facility Noncommissioned Officer In Charge
- 2013 - 2015: Specialist Expediter
- 2015 - 2016: Jet Engine Intermediate Maintenance Production Supervisor
- 2016 - 2017: Jet Engine Intermediate Maintenance Section Chief
- 2017 - 2018: Test Cell Section Chief
- 2018 - 2019: Specialist Section Chief
- 2019 - Present: F-16 Viper Demonstration Team Superintendent